SPEC'S Cheese of the Week

Queso de Murcia al Vino

From the village of Jumilla in the south-central part of Spain, this semi-soft goat cheese is soaked in Double Pasta wine (Mourvedre grape) for 72 hours. Aged for roughly 75 days, it has a sweet, smooth flavor and an attractive violet color rind. Queso de Murcia al Vino is excellent for tapas, shaved on salads or sliced on top of crusty bread with sliced Spanish Chorizo or Jamon Serrano.
