SPEC'S Cheese of the Week

Comte St. Antoine 14mo.

This is an extra special cheese from the French Alps. This Comte is aged a minimum of 14 months in an 18th century fort that was built into the Jura mountains, providing a cave-like environment. The result is a deep, long in the mouth, fruity taste. Very noble and aromatic, it is ripened to a lovely brown "wood colored rind" with a yellow paste. Made with raw milk that only comes from cows fed on rich summer pastures.
