

BUZZ PICKS

LINDSEY

Ayinger Brau-Weisse

5.1% ABV, German Hefeweizen Available in 16.9oz bottles

Ayinger's philosophy is "to promote, maintain and nourish real beer culture" and Ayinger Brau-Weiss is a testament to that commitment to brew world class beers. The beer pours the traditional, cloudy yellow straw color with a big, white fluffy head and an aroma full of banana and clove notes. With plenty of effervescence, full bodied mouthfeel and a soft, refreshing finish, Ayinger Brau-Weiss is a wonderful example of a traditional hefeweizen.

"Ayinger Brau-Weiss was the first German Hefe that was recommended to me and it did not disappoint. More flavorful and complex than the American Hefe's I was drinking at the time."

AUGUSTINE

Saint Arnold Brown Ale

5.3% ABV, Brown Ale Available in 6 packs

Saint Arnold Brown has been a regular in their lineup since 1995, the 1st anniversary of the brewery. It's the winner of 5 brown ale awards over the years and the first sip will show why. It pours a nice deep copper color and the toasty, nutty malt shines through on the nose. The taste follows through with a nutty, slightly chocolate malt flavor along with just a kiss of hops to mellow the sweetness.

"I love the malt flavor of this beer. Perfect for the cooler days ahead."

RYAN

Lagunitas Little Sumpin' Sumpin'

7.5% ABV, American Pale Wheat Ale Available in 4 pack cans

Lagunitas A Little Sumpin' Sumpin' Ale is a hoppy American Pale Wheat Ale. It is a golden colored beer that has spice notes and a thick fluffy head found in wheat ale while retaining the snappiness, bitterness, and citrus notes of traditional pale ales. It is an ale with both intricate complexity and distinctive style while sustaining fantastic drinkability.

"A Little Sumpin' Sumpin' Ale is an interesting hybrid-styled beer that can satisfy any drinker's need for a little sumpin' different."

